Our lady readers who desire to send to Philadelphia for Millinery, &c. &c., will find the establishment of JANE MILLER at No. 8 South Sixth St., upper side, where all orders will be punctually attended to.

It will be seen in another column, that BLAIR & BARRETT have opened the MOUNT VERNON for the reception of visiters. We wish them abundant success, and have no doubt our Clearfield friends visiting the City, will call where they will always meet a warm and welcome reception.

The Administrator's accounts, passed by the Register, will be found in another col-

IT It is always a good plan for men in business to settle up their accounts regularly .-JAMES B. GRAHAM, adopting this course, calls peremptorily upon those having dealings with him to come forward and settle up.

Those of our farmers who have orchards, should procure one of Hickok's portable cider mills, which are represented as one of the very best articles of the kind ever invented. L. R. CARTER, is the agent in this place.

The time will soon be here, when our readers will require a good warm fire, beside which to enjoy the Journal, and they should look out for fuel, 'ere it arrives. Those desiring a good article of coal can obtain it on application to W. L. MOORE, whose orders will be filled at his Coal Bank, adjoining town. See card.

Our friend BRIDGE, who is a clever fel-Daguerrean Gallery, at Curwensville. He takes beautiful pictures, and we have no doubt those of our readers who give him a call, will receive entire satisfaction.

In another column it will be seen that a valuable farm, near New Washington, is offered at private sale, by Mr. John Shetten. This is a good piece of land, in a good locality, and possesses excellent and commodious improvements. See card.

The 'Corporal' in his perigrinatius a few days since, while searching for the 'Know Nothings,' observed a crowd pouring into the room next door to the Journal office. Of course he followed, but discovered the cause of attraction to be a splendid and cheap assortment of boots and shoes, recently opened there by C. S. BLACK. From the excellent quality of his work, the 'Corporal' come to the conclusion that CHARLEY did'nt belong to the Order.

If It will be seen that D. W. ROBBINS & Co., at Lumber city, have dissolved partnership. The Books and accounts are in the hands of D. W. Robbins for settlement.

By reference to the Brigade Orders, in another column, it will be seen that an election is to be held for Major, in place of Thos. H. FULTON, deceased. We hope they may get as good a man to fill the station, as our lamented

M. A. FRANK Esq, informs his friends and the public, that he has removed his business stand two doors east of the Journal office. in Graham's Row, where he will be happy to attend to those who may give him a call.

We request the attention of our readers to the card of Hughes & Invin in another column, the proprietors of the Tyrone City Hotel. Give them a call, when you visit Tyrone, if you wish to be well treated, and get acquainted with a couple of clever fellows.

We see by a card in another part of our paper, that our friend HARTSHORN, whom we announced sometime since as having retired to private life, has again launched his craft, a Lumber City. HARTSHORN & McCRAKEN, are a pair of "sound eggs," as the boys say, and if you want cheap goods just give them a call.

We call attention to the list of Sheriff's Sales in another column, by which it will be seen that a large quantity of valuable property will be exposed to sale at the September Court. Speculators will have a first rate opportunity to make profitable investments.

We call the attention of painters, and others to the fact, that a large and excellent supply of White Lead and Linseed Oil, has just been received at Mossor & Porrangr's.

JOHN CHAMBERS. AGAIN .- We find in the Alchenian, a paper published in Cambria county, communication setting forth that the Rev John Chambers, who now launches his feeble thunderbolts at the Know Nothings was, in the early days of Nativeism, an ardent friend and supporter of L. C. Levin, the incarnation of hatred to foreigners of every grade, but more particulary to his own countrymen, the Protestant Irish. He also, it is alledged, went further in stimulating the popular passious against Roman Catholics, at the period of the Southwark and Kensington riots than almost any other man. We can readily believe all this. It is characteristic of the man, and illustrates, in connection with his present course, what an utter demagogue and truckler he is-Pittsburg Gazette.

No Letter Yet!

That "private letter" from Gov. Bigler to which the Rev. John Chambers [referred in his Bedford Speech, has not yet been published. But the Rev. gentleman himself has written a letter which we suppose he designs as a substitute. This however won't answer.— It was not a letter from Rev. John Chambers that was callep for, but the "private letter" from Gov. Bigler that authorized Mr. C. to say what he did about the Governor's views and purposes in relation to a Prohibatory Liquor Law. Until this is produced, the verdict of "UNSATISFACTORY"-written against Gov. Bigler by the State Prohibition Convention, will be maintained and acted on by all true friends of the cause .- Hollidaysburg Register

CALIFORNIA .- According to the last advices, to August 1st., the differences in the Democratic ranks have assumed a form similar to Samples, the position of the Hards and Softs in New | Shingles, York. The Democratic State Convention is Hemlock Boards. said to have been a turbulent affair, and it end- Hemlock Joist and Scantling, ed in a complete split, and the nomination of separate tickets for State officers. This will probably give the State to the Whigs, and they will gain a United States Senator in place of William M. Gwin, whose term expires March 4th, 1855. The differences in the party arises from the same causes as those in New York. No particulars relative to the convention have yet been received.

Railroad Accident-Two Ladies Killed, An express train on the New York Central Road, which reached Albany on the 29th, ran over two ladies at Canastota, seven miles from Syracuse, instantly killing them. The ladies were just descending from the mail traingoing West, which was waiting for the express train to pass. Unfortunately, they got out of the wrong side of the cars, and were caught by the passing express train and horribly mangled. They were literally torn asunder, their limbs being rent from their hodies. Names

TREASURE FOUND .- Some workmen, in digging at Harlem a few days ago, found a box containing two or three thousand Spanish dollars. It was deposited there for safe keeping by Samuel Benson, during the French revolution-while he fled to the mountains of Fishkill. A tree was planted over the spot, but it died and was removed during his absence, and on his return the burial place was lost to his memory. The laborers who found the sons of 21 years of age, pay $1.52 per $100, yearcoin threw down their picks and shovels, filled ly. Hard Road to Travel.

The Nebraska Orators have a "hard road to travel." The Lafayette Journal says, Holman, recently made a speech at Milan, Ripley county, to three or four hundred people. After he had finished, a vote was taken on the Nebraslow and deserving of patronage, has opened a | ka Bill, and only one solitary individual voted in its favor. Poor Holman, we imagine, must have felt distressingly lonesome in the crowd.

> Soft as Mush!-A farmer near Chicago was recently swindled out of $3000, by a woman professing to be a necromancer. She told him of buried money on his farm, guarded by an evil genii. He produced, at her request. three thousand dollars, to avert the genii, and by an unperceived substitution, she took the good money and left a roll of brown paper and a few cents, in exchange. The process was effected during the performance of the solemn rites, and was a finished and highly successful performance.

> CAPTURE OF A PIRATE. - An arrival at New York from Turk's Island, reports that a French war vessels had captured a Piratical craft, to the westward of the Bahamas, after she had made several prizes.

This, if confirmed, will no doubt prove to be the strange craft that has recently boarded several vessels in the West India Seas.

DFThe arrivals of peaches in New York city amount to three thousand baskets per day. Potatoes sell there at from three to four dollars per barrel.

The land of Palestine has been mortgaged by the Sultan to the house of Rothschilds, for a loan to aid in the Turkish war.

The corn crop is said to present an unusually fine appearance in the mountain counties of Kentucky.

TMPORTANT REDUCTION IN POST-AGE.-We congratulate our subscribers and the reading public generally, on the cheapness with which they can now receive our reprints by mail. The postage hitherto—though gradually reduced since 1841—has always operated as a discouragement to their circulation in places inac-cessible by expresses or other modes of regular private conveyance. Hence, as yet they have obtained but a comparative meagre mail circulation. We hope now that the postage is merely nominal, a new impetus will be given to these valuable works, and that no Post Office within the United States will remain unvisited by at least one copy of the four Reviews and Blackwoods Magazine. The Postage on Blackwood and the four Reviews is now but 72 cents a year, and the subscription price is but $3, and when taken with any of the
